

Serving our communities— virtually

Join us and Spire for a free, live webinar to learn more about the Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP) and other assistance programs.

Get help applying for energy assistance, including the Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP)

Learn about additional assistance programs to help keep you warm in the colder months

Registration is required. Register online at SpireEnergy.com/Assistance

Make sure you have these documents ready and available

And remember, your service doesn't need to be disconnected, or even at risk of a disconnection, to apply.

- Current heating bill (Natural gas, propane or electric)
- Current electric bill
- Copies of social security cards for all household members as well as their birth dates (if your household currently receives food stamps, only the social security numbers and birthdates are required)
- Copies of income documentation such as paystubs (for the prior month), current award letters or current pension statements (if your household currently receives food stamps, income documentation is not required)

