

READER'S WORKSHOP: PART 3

Best Practices for Instruction

OBJECTIVES

- To discuss best practices for formative assessment strategies during Reader's Workshop
- To brainstorm and share ideas for using and creating anchor charts
- To identify ways to use the "catch and release" method
- To discuss and create effective ways to debrief

STOP AND JOT

- Ask students to take some notes while reading.
- For differentiation purposes, students can choose a certain number to complete instead of all of them.

Look at the sample in your handout. Choose a few questions to adapt to your current/next reading selection.

BRAINSTORM

Reflect on your last Reader's Workshop session.

What was an area of struggle during work/independent time?

What strategies/advice/resources could you have provided the students to help them?
