

United
Lutheran
Seminary

Master of Divinity

Do you see yourself leading from the altar, the pulpit, the font, or in a feeding ministry, chaplaincy, or specialized ministry?

This degree is the benchmark for pastoral ministry study and approval for ordination, into Word and Sacrament rostered leadership.

UNIFYING, LEARNING,
SERVING

 uls.edu/MDiv

 215-248-7302

OUTSTANDING THEOLOGICAL EDUCATION.

The Master of Divinity Program (MDiv) at United Lutheran Seminary prepares leaders from 30 denominations for a wide range of pastoral ministries in the Christian church. Students in the MDiv program participate in a 191-year tradition of outstanding theological education marked by academic excellence, spiritual formation, and ministry experience.

- 3-4 years if full time, 72 credits
- World-renowned ecumenical faculty
- Curricular emphasis in Public Theology
- Contextual Education and internship components for practical ministry experience
- Coursework include Bible, theology, history, and ethics, as well as preaching, teaching, pastoral care, administration, evangelism, stewardship, and worship.

United Lutheran Seminary offers full-time, part-time, day, night, Saturday, intensive, and distance-learning courses, making excellent theological education accessible to a wide range of students. Need- and merit-based financial aid is available for MDiv students.

Visit uls.edu/MDiv to learn more.