

United Lutheran Seminary

UNIFYING, LEARNING, SERVING

DIETRICH BONHOEFFER PUBLIC THEOLOGY SYMPOSIUM

'The Challenge of Public Theology in Turbulent Times: How Are We Still of Any Use?'

honoring the academic vocation of the Rev. Dr. Katie Day, Charles A. Schieren Professor Emerita of Church and Society,
United Lutheran Seminary

1-3pm Online Symposium, Friday April 9, 2021

Keynote Speaker:

William Storrar, Ph.D

Director, Center for Theological Inquiry, Princeton Founding Member, Global Network for Public Theology

*"We have been silent witnesses of evil deeds;
we have been drenched by many storms;
we have learnt the arts of equivocation and pretence;
experience has made us suspicious of others
and kept us from being truthful and open;
intolerable conflicts have worn us down
and even made us cynical.
Are we still of any use?"*

Bonhoeffer, Dietrich. "After Ten Years," in Letters and Papers from Prison.

Panelists:

- Victoria Barnett, Ph.D., Director of the Programs on Ethics, Religion, and the Holocaust at the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum from 2004-2019

- Charles Howard, Ph.D., Vice President for Social Equity and Community, University of Pennsylvania

- Nancy Fuchs Kreimer, Ph.D., Director, Multifaith Studies and Initiatives Program, Reconstructionist Rabbinical College

- Leah Schade, Ph.D., Assistant Professor of Preaching and Worship, Lexington Theological Seminary

United Lutheran Seminary