

United Lutheran Seminary

Office of Diversity, Equity and Inclusion

~ Presents ~

Women's History Month

Distinguished Women Of United Lutheran Seminary

"Women Working Together... Hear us ...

We are living out our purpose"

Chelle Huth

March 26, 2021

Chelle Huth, a Deacon in the ELCA, has served Gettysburg & Philadelphia Seminaries (and now United Lutheran Seminary) since 2000 in a variety of roles centered around faith formation and youth ministry.

After completing a certificate in Children, Youth & Family Ministry through Wartburg Seminary she felt called to seminary education and received her MAMS in 2007 from Gettysburg Seminary.

She is passionate about theological education and equipping leaders in the church for ministry in the world. Chelle also serves as Adjunct Faculty in Certificate study programs.

Chelle has served on a variety of event planning teams to include the ELCA Youth Gathering, Region Youth Leaders Gatherings, Synodical Youth Ministries, Cooperative Ministry summits, just to list a few. She has also served as the Manager of the Curriculum Writing Team for the ELCA Youth Gathering and a consultant for a variety of contexts on faith formation and learning. Chelle lives in Mechanicsburg with her very understanding husband, Eric, 4 children, 3 cats and a variety of long-term house guests.

Chelle's favorite quote,

"I have decided to stick with love, hate is too great a burden to bear." Martin Luther King, Jr