

Duane Good

Duane Good is President of Tribal Credit, where he drives strategic banking and financial partnerships across geographies — all while leading the company towards fulfilling its goals and strategies. An expert in applied analytics, Duane heads the company's credit management and underwriting efforts. He has over 25 years of experience in cards, fintech, banking operations, and risk management across global financial markets. He was previously Managing Partner at RiskThought, a provider of strategic solutions for leading financial institutions. Duane also served as Executive Vice President at HSBC in COO and CIO roles and as Vice President of Decision Analytics at Experian. He was a founding member of eCapital Financial, MBNA International Bank, and MBNA Canada Bank. He holds an EMTM/MBA from the Moore & Wharton Schools at University of Pennsylvania and a BS in Business Administration from Bucknell University.