Marie – Vin d'Alsace

DEPUIS
1762

Named after the first vintage made by the Biecher family, the 1762 range is a vinous exploration of Alsace heritage. It's intended to be a picture of Alsace, seen through the lens of her mature vineyards, in a given vintage. Therefore, the cuvée is composed of rare and extraordinary parcels of vines.

Tasting notes

Appearance : The colour is clear with green hints underlining its characteristic freshness. Nose : The nose is delicate and appealing. The bouquet is subtly fruit and floral: citrus fruits, white flowers, freshly-cut grass. Palate : The palate is approachable and delicate, framed around vivid acidity.

Food and wine pairing

Fine blend of different varieties (such as Pinot Blanc, Pinot Gris, Riesling & Gewurztraminer), Marie Vin d'Alsace aims to be a perfect introduction to our 1762 range. This wine is both spontaneous and light, adopting a direct approach without caring about embellishments. Frank and direct by nature, Marie is above all a refreshing wine to be shared without any frills along with plates of charcuterie or with a fuss-free quiche or onion tart. Nothing can beat this wine for a better partner of simple and authentic dishes with its verve and easy-going charms.
