ABOUT THE PRODUCER

Famiglia Grillo is a quality minded organic producer from Italy. Quality, craftsmanship, and sustainability have been the guiding principles for the family for generations, in their determination to develop and producer top quality wines with a classic character.

VINEYARDS & WINEMAKING

Italy is one of the world's largest wine producing countries, and displays a vast assortment of various wine styles, thanks to positive vine growing conditions, numerous grape varietals, and wine making styles. Famiglia Grillo Red Blend is obtained with high quality, hand-picked grapes, left on the plant to get overly matured. It is vinified using soft crushing; temperature is controlled during fermentation and maceration to express the typical characteristics of these elegant grapes
