

TOWN OF BLACK BROOK

Local Law #1 of 2017

A LOCAL LAW TO CONTROL NOISE IN THE TOWN OF BLACK BROOK.

Section 1. Findings/Purpose.

The proliferation of unreasonably loud, disturbing and unnecessary noises in the Town of Black Brook of such character, intensity, duration or repetition as to be detrimental to the life, health or safety of any individual or of the public has reached such proportions that the Town Board, pursuant to the authority of § 130 of the Town Law of the State of New York, to preserve, protect and promote the public health, safety and welfare, has enacted a Noise Control Local Law which, pursuant to the standards hereinafter set forth, shall delineate permitted noise levels within the Town of Black Brook.

Section 2. Definitions.

For the purposes of this local law, the terms used herein shall be defined as follows:

DECIBEL

A unit for measuring the volume of sound.

EMERGENCY WORK

Work or activity that is necessary to prevent or recover from an emergency, including but not limited to work to repair electric, gas, water, sewerage and telephone services.

OWNER

The person or entity who has record title to a parcel of real estate.

LESSEE

The person who has a right to occupy the real property of another owner for a period of at least 30 consecutive days.

RECREATIONAL VEHICLE

Any vehicle which is propelled by any power other than muscular power that is designated for or capable of cross-country travel, such as a motorcycle, trail bike or minibike, but not a snowmobile.

SOUND-LEVEL METER

An instrument, including a microphone, an amplifier, an output meter and frequency-weighting network for the measurement of sound levels.

UNREASONABLE NOISE

Any excessive, unreasonable or unusually loud sound or any sound which either annoys, disturbs, injures or endangers the comfort, repose, health, peace or safety of a person or which causes injury to animal life or damages to property or business. Standards to be considered in determining whether unreasonable noise exists in a given situation include, but are not limited to, the following:

- A. The intensity of noise.
- B. Whether the nature of the noise is usual or unusual.
- C. Whether the origin of the noise is natural or unnatural.
- D. The volume and intensity of the background noise, if any.
- E. The proximity of the noise to sleeping facilities.
- F. The nature and the character of the neighborhood in which the noise is heard.
- G. The time of day or night in which the noise occurs.
- H. The duration of the noise.
- I. Whether the noise is continual or of a periodic or impulsive character.
- J. Any sound in excess of 90 dB as heard from the source of the noise, or the property line thereof, will be deemed presumptive evidence of unreasonable noise.

Section 3. Persons Liable.

The following persons shall be held liable for a violation of this local law:

- A. The person making the noise or operating the equipment or device making the noise.
- B. The owner or lessee of the premises which is the source of the noise.
- C. It shall be an affirmative defense to liability hereunder, if a person who has not caused the unreasonable noise reports the suspected violation to the enforcement officer prior to the enforcement officer arriving in response to a complaint in investigate a suspected noise violation.

Section 4. Prohibited Acts Enumerated.

The following acts, and the causing thereof, are declared to be in violation of this chapter, but any enumeration herein shall not be deemed to be exclusive:

- A. The operation of or the permitting of the operation of a radio, television set, drum, musical instrument, sound amplifier or similar device which produces, reproduces or amplifies sound which creates unreasonable noise at the adjoining property line or, in the case of a multiple residence, within the adjoining or adjacent apartment.
- B. The projection of sound by an electronic device, musical instrument or otherwise, directly onto the public way, for any purpose whatsoever so as to create unnecessary noise. Nothing contained herein shall be construed as prohibiting the normal emanation of sound from a vehicle playing a car radio or similar device or the normal emanation of sound from the demonstration or use of a musical instrument within a private residence; provided, however, that there is no unreasonable noise therefrom at a distance of 50 feet or more from said vehicle or store.

C. Operating or permitting the operation of any tool or equipment used in construction, drilling or demolition work, including excavation and the alteration or repair of any building between the hours of 10:00 p.m. and 6:00 a.m. so as to create unreasonable noise except in the case of an emergency or the interests of public safety.

D. The operation of an appliance, including but not limited to a pump, fan, exhaust fan, air-conditioning device or similar mechanical device between the hours of 10:00 p.m. and 6:00 a.m. so as to create unreasonable noise at the adjoining property line or, in the case of a multiple residence, within the adjoining or adjacent apartment.

E. The loading or unloading of any vehicle or in the opening and destruction of bales, boxes, crates and containers in such a manner as to create unreasonable noise at the adjoining property line or, in the case of multiple residence, within the adjoining or adjacent apartment.

F. The use of any drum, loud speaker or other instrument or device for the purposes of attracting attention to any performance, show or sale or display of merchandise by the creation of unreasonable noise.

G. The use of any automobile, motorcycle, truck, recreational vehicle or other vehicle so out of repair or loaded in such a manner as to create unreasonable noise by operating, accelerating, grating, grinding, rattling or other noise.

H. The discharge into the open air of the exhaust of any steam engine, stationary internal combustion engine, recreation vehicle, snowmobile or any other motor vehicle unless equipped with a muffler or other device in good order and in constant operation which will prevent unreasonable noise from being emitted therefrom.

M. The sounding of a horn or signal device on any automobile, motorcycle, bus or other vehicle so as to create unreasonable noise, except as a warning signal pursuant to the provisions of the motor vehicle laws of the State of New York.

N. The use or operation of any sound-producing device in any public place in such a manner as to create unreasonable noise to any person other than the operator of the device.

O. The harboring of any animal, including a bird, which animal, whether by its barking, growling, howling, squawking, scratching or otherwise, creates unreasonable noise at the adjoining property line or, in the case of a multiple residence, within the adjoining or adjacent apartment.

P. To intentionally make, or cause to make, any other unreasonable noise or sound that annoys, disturbs, injures or endangers the comfort, repose, health, safety or welfare of another person. For purposes of this local law, any sound in excess of 90 dB as heard from the source of the noise, or the property line thereof, will be deemed presumptive evidence of unreasonable noise.

Section 5. Exemptions.

The following sounds shall not be deemed to be in violation of this local law:

A. Sounds created by church bells or chimes.

B. Sounds created by any government agency by the use of public warning devices.

- C. Sounds created by public utilities in carrying out the operations of their franchise.
- D. Sounds connected with sporting events of any public or private school or authorized carnival, fair, exhibition or parade authorized by permit of the Town Board.
- E. The sounds created by crop cultivation, production, harvesting and livestock production.
- F. Sounds created by safety and protective devices.
- G. The use of snow removal equipment at any time.
- H. Non-commercial public speaking and public assembly activities conducted in a public place.

Section 6. Penalties for Offense.

Any person violating any provision of this local law shall have committed an offense and shall be subject to a fine of not less than $250. A separate offense shall be deemed committed on each day during which the violation occurs.

Section 7. Enforcement.

This local law may be enforced by any code enforcement officer or building inspector employed by the Town of Black Brook and the procedures will mirror that of a code violation. This local law may also be enforced by any peace officer.
