Introduction

The management of State Hall, thereafter, known as the Hall, rests with the Hall management and the owners Kings Church. Our aim is to work closely with the local and wider community.

Hall policy

The hall is operated under an equal opportunities code of conduct and a code of behavior, which is as follows: -

- all people will be always treated with dignity and respect
- At all times people's feelings will be valued and respected. Language or humor that people find offensive will not be tolerated (e.g., sexist or racist jokes or terminology.)
- No one will be harassed, abused or intimidated on any grounds. Incidents of harassment will be treated seriously and the person/persons causing the offence will be asked to leave the hall.
- The hall management expects a high level of good conduct from the users of the hall. Hall users/hirers therefore are required to refrain from offensive language and loud/unruly behavior. Hall users/hirers will respect the premises, avoid damage to property and unnecessary mess. Serious breach of the above conditions will result in the offenders being asked to leave the premises.

Use of Hall

The use of the hall and its facilities is subject to the following rules and, in the case of hirers, to certain standard conditions incorporated in the hiring agreement.

1. Application to use the hall.

- booking form completed and submitted to the office administrator.
- The right to refuse any application for the use of hall facilities is reserved to the hall management.
- The hall management reserves the right to cancel any bookings when the premises are considered unfit for the intended use.
- The hall is open to bookings from all individuals and groups. However, as the hall is owned and operated by a Christian Church, the hall management reserves the right to refuse bookings that promote or support behavior, activities or lifestyles that they consider contrary to biblical teaching.
- All requirements of use shall be declared to the Church administrator prior to the event, when completing the booking form. Additional charges will be required if any facilities have been provided at an event which have not been specified on the booking form.
- The hall/rooms will not be set up by hall management, hirers are required to set up chairs and tables, then return to original state before end of hire.

2. Booking conditions.

- Full payment is due 7 days prior to the booking
- Weddings and parties also require a damage deposit of £100.00 which is fully returnable, dependent on the satisfactory condition of State Hall at the end of the hire:
- Cancellation must be made no later than 28 days prior to the booking.
- The hirer will be held responsible for any damage inside or outside the hall for period of hire. Damages must be paid for by the hirer for the repairs or replacements.

3. Insurance and licensing

- The Hall's public liability insurance provides cover for injuries arising from a defect of the premises or of the contents of the building. There is no cover against injury arising from any action or negligence by the hirer. Hirers should therefore note that they must accept responsibility for adequate supervision and for arrange suitable insurance cover to cover personal accidents, third-party claims, any loss/damage to the hirers possessions, or any loss/damage to the hall and its furniture, equipment and fittings resulting from the hire.
- The hirer shall not sub-let or use the premises for any unlawful purposes or in any unlawful way, do anything or bring on to the premises anything which may endanger the premises, their users, or any insurance policies relating there to.
- The hirer shall be responsible for ascertaining, obtaining and complying with any licenses and special fire precautions necessary in connection with the booking.

- The hirer shall be responsible for the observance of all regulations pertaining to the premises stipulated by the licensing justices, the fire authority, the local authority or otherwise.
- It is possible for a hirer to take out a public liability policy with most insurance companies for the period of hire. The limit of indemnity for this type of policy should not be less than £2,000,000 (two million pounds)
- Hirers should ensure that their public liability includes damage to premises under their control.
