

MEET UPS

TODAY IN YOUR MEET UP

Quietly consider the questions Luke asked:

Are you being obedient to the call and commission God has spoken over your life?

Do you recall the prophecies God once made about you and are you living in the fullness of them? If you have never heard from God in this way, pray and ask God to speak to you.

After you have quietly reflected with God, spend time sharing the prophecies that you are living with and if needed confess if you have not done anything with the voice of God and have been asleep on a boat headed in the wrong direction.

Ask God to awaken you to the desire of His heart and will for your life. Pray for one another that God would awaken in you the dreams and desires that are in His heart and that your vision will be filled with His vision for your life.

Can I encourage you to begin a practice of regularly re-reading and recalling prophetic words, dreams and visions that God has made about you. Pray about them and ask God to bring you into the fullness of them, ask God for faith, for boldness and for opportunities to walk in the reality of them.

I believe that as we do this God's ambassadors will arise and God will begin to make His appeal through us. 2 Corinthians:5v20.
