Passage: Matthew 11 v 28-30

Take a minute in silence and then have one person read the verses out (very slowly) giving time for the verses to 'sink in'. Then spend a minute in silence as you reflect on the beauty of Jesus.

When Spurgeon says it is 'heaven to serve Jesus' and Jesus says his 'yoke is easy and his burden is light' we can sometimes feel like that's not true (at least in our experience). Does what Spurgeon and Jesus say provoke you to seek that heavenly yoke and burden or has it caused you to give up in disappointment?

Take a minute in silence to ask the Holy Spirit to reveal what's going on in your own heart.

Chat through with one another where you are.

Read the passage again slowly, then respond to the passage and anything that has come up in your discussions in prayer; remembering that he is more kind and available than we think!
