

Zoom Telephonics Adds A+ Content For All Its Cable Modems Listed On Amazon

Comparison Tables and Improved Graphics Make Cable Modem Shopping Easier

Boston, MA, January 6, 2020 – Zoom Telephonics, Inc. (“Zoom” or “the Company”) (OTCQB: ZMTP), a leading producer of cable modems and other communication products, today announced that it has added A+ content to all its Amazon cable modem and cable modem/router ads. A+ content enables richer product descriptions with enhanced images, comparison tables, and expanded text. Zoom’s improved ads can be viewed by going to www.amazon.com and searching for any of the following Motorola brand products, which Zoom produces under its brand partnership with Motorola. The products are the MB8600, MB7621, MB7420, and MB7220 cable modems and the MT7711, MG7700, MG7550, MG7540, and MG7315 cable modem/routers.

Frank Manning, Zoom’s CEO, commented: “Amazon is very important to us, and this A+ content is a big enhancement that should increase our already high Amazon sales.”

Joe Wytanis, Zoom’s President, said: “This is an important part of Zoom’s ongoing effort to enhance our online marketing as we drive for increased sales through e-tailers and through top storefront retailers including Best Buy and Target.”
