Four Celtic Seasons

with Celeste Ray™

Enter the Enchanted kingdom of the Celts celebrating each of the Four Seasons!

Music, film and dance express an extravaganza of four unique shows celebrating the changing tides of the seasons...

*Four Celtic Voices 2009 album "Four Leaf Clover" debuted at the #1 position on the

CELESTE RAY is a composer and singer; performing on piano, bowed psaltery and harmonium, Ms. Ray is a Celtic performer and educator of the highest technical caliber. She is known for unique approaches to her show concepts, bringing depth and variety to the rich heritage of Irish poetry and Celtic storytelling. Celeste has performed at Carnegie Hall under the direction of famed composer John Rutter, as an honored guest at Government House in Queensland Australia and ABC. Featured artists include Erin Hill, Carol Crittenden and Alison Crossley.

FOUR CELTIC VOICES is now available to perform time-honored traditionals (like "Danny Boy" and "Molly Malone") mixed with original psaltery dances and Irish Blessings. Four Celtic Seasons shows have something to offer for all! Each show speaks to the heart and soul of the audience bringing communities together celebrating Spring, Summer, Autumn, and Winter. Ms. Ray also offers a popular Arts in Education program designed for all ages.

"Celeste has a warm and pleasant voice ... One of her distinctive calling cards is her skill with the bowed psaltery... the sound is at once fresh and other-worldly." – Los Angeles Times

"Sold – out audience of Four Celtic Voices holiday show at The Egg... "Playing flute, a Celtic harp and the bowed psaltery, the four women sang and played traditionals and contemporary fun originals...

The combination of voices was rich with character... and a wonderful mix of harp and psaltery filled every corner of the hall with a lush sound" – The Daily Gazette, Albany, NY
