RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR A LEVEL TRIAL EXAMINATIONS

As with any other examination conducted in the school, you must follow the rules and regulations (see Rule 3b – Academic Integrity). Any deviation from these rules and regulations will be regarded as a serious breach of school discipline and the matter will be referred to a senior member of staff.

STUDY LEAVE

For the period of Monday 4th to Friday 15th January, the school timetable for Upper Sixth will be suspended.

If you have a morning exam, you must arrive at school in time for morning registration (by 8.40am). If you have an afternoon exam only, you must arrive in school between 12:10pm and 12:30pm, for registration. If you arrive after 12:30pm, you will be deemed late. At all other times, you should go to Private Study.

For morning exams, you must report to the Chapel Courtyard at 8:55am and for afternoon exams at 1.45pm.

All school bags are to be left at the Sixth Form Common Room.

During exams, the rules and regulations of public exams will apply. In particular, you are reminded that:

- you must remain in silence at all times while you are in the exam room;
- you may not take calculator cases into the exam room and pencil cases must be clear plastic;
- you should write your answers in black ink and you may not use correcting fluid;
- you must not communicate with other pupils in any way during the exam and you may not share equipment.
- Smart watches and other electronic devices are strictly forbidden.
- Wrist watches, which are permitted by the regulations, must be placed on your desk.
- Water bottles must be fully transparent, and label free.

Exam Clashes

If you have a clash between subjects, you must sit exams in the order they are on the timetable (you may sit two exams in one session, up to a total of 3 hours).

Missing Exams

If you miss an exam due to illness, self-isolation, or university interviews, you must sit the paper(s) missed on the next day that you can come into school; you should make arrangements by 8.10am with Miss Coles-Lockwood (if returning during the exam fortnight) or with your subject teacher (if returning to school after 15th January 2021).
