*Lord, make me an instrument of Your peace;
Where there is hatred, let me sow love;
where there is injury, pardon;
where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope;
where there is darkness, light;
and where there is sadness, joy.*

*O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console;
to be understood as to understand;
to be loved, as to love;
For it is in giving that we receive;
it is in pardoning that we are pardoned;
it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.*

Celebrating the Life of Manuel Gallegos

Manuel Andrew Gallegos was born on November 18, 1965 in Cheyenne, Wy to Jose "Fritz" and Mary Gallegos. He was the youngest of 7 children. He graduated from Saint Mary's High School in Cheyenne and went on to complete a Bachelor's and Master's degree in education at the University of Wyoming. He was a lifelong Wyoming Cowboys fan and attended every football and basketball game while living in Laramie.

After graduation he worked for the Upward Bound Program at the University of Wyoming until his family moved to Sheridan where he worked for the Daniel's Fund and then went on to teach English, Reading and Social Studies at an alternative junior high school. He retired several years ago to be a stay at home dad and consulted for national testing companies. He was married to Rhonda Hartman on April 29, 1995 at Saint Joseph's Catholic Church in Cheyenne, Wy. He loved to coach his children's teams in soccer, football, volleyball and basketball. He always said his favorite was coaching itty-bitty sports at the Sheridan YMCA because he could brag that all of his teams were undefeated since no one kept score. He also enjoyed supporting his children in swimming, art and academics. He loved the outdoors of Wyoming and spent time camping, hunting and fishing. He is survived by this wife Rhonda and his children Amelie (Reno) who attends school in Salem, Massachusetts, Francisco who attends school in Mankato, Minnesota, and Avaleena who attends Sheridan Junior High School. He is also survived by his siblings Mark Gallegos (Mary), Sarah Tate, Theresa Sandoval (Eddie), and Bonnie Riedel (Charlie) as well as numerous nieces and nephews and great nieces and nephews. He has joined in heaven his parents as well as his brothers Stephen and Dale.
