WINTER HOLIDAY GUIDE

TIPS FOR SAFE CELEBRATIONS

At this time of the year, our community celebrates the holidays. Over the next weeks and into the New Year, remember you can celebrate and honor your traditions but in different ways than in the past, to keep you and your loved ones safe.

The Masked and Mighty COVID Coalition partners thank the community for ongoing, diligent efforts to stay safe and protect each other.

To help you find creative ways to celebrate holidays, we have prepared this resource guide.

WINTER SOLSTICE

DECEMBER 21

The winter solstice marks the first day of winter and the shortest day of the year. In the Northern Hemisphere, winter solstice is in December. In the Southern Hemisphere it occurs in June.

FUN FACTS ABOUT WINTER SOLSTICE:

Ancient cultures viewed the winter solstice as a time of death and rebirth

Stonehenge is aligned to the sunset of winter solstice

The word "solstice" roughly translates to "sun stands still"

LAS POSADAS

DECEMBER 16-24

Las Posadas is Spanish for "Inns" or "Shelter" and is a religious festival to commemorate the journey of Joseph and Mary from Nazareth to Bethlehem in search of a safe refuge where Mary could give birth.

SAFER WAYS TO CELEBRATE:

Have a virtual visit with family and friends

Drop off mini piñatas to loved ones

Record Christmas pageants at home to send to family members

NOCHEBUENA

DECEMBER 24

Nochebuena means "the good night" and is celebrated on the evening Christmas Eve. Traditions include Christmas carols, piñatas, making a roasted pork dish and playing dominoes. Traditional dishes may also include tamales, tostadas, pozole, tacos, atole and bacalao (salt cod), champurrado, arroz con leche, and flan.

SAFER WAYS TO CELEBRATE:

Sing Christmas carols virtually with family and friends

Deliver poinsettias to the doorsteps of loved ones

Play virtual dominoes

Create to-go boxes with traditional foods for family members to pick up on your porch, or drop off on theirs

CHRISTMAS

DECEMBER 25

Christmas, or the Feast of the Nativity, is a Christian festival celebrating the birth of Jesus. It is also a secular holiday observed in various cultures. Traditions include decorating Christmas trees in the home, decorating homes with lights, receiving an overnight delivery of gifts for children from Santa Claus, and singing holiday songs.

SAFE WAYS TO CELEBRATE:

Enjoy a virtual caroling party with family and friends

Decorate your home with Christmas lights and invite family and friends to drive by to see the display.

With your children, cut out paper snowflakes, build a gingerbread house and bake cookies

Enjoy a virtual Christmas movie night with family and friends

EPIPHANY

JANUARY 6

Epiphany is celebrated 12 days after Christmas on January 6 (or January 19 for some Orthodox Christians to commemorate the visit by the Wise Men (also known as Three Kings) to the baby Jesus. Festivities include a king cake with a baby figurine inside, special songs, and small gifts hidden in children's shoes.

SAFER WAYS TO CELEBRATE:

Host a virtual crown-making contest.

Bake king cakes and leave them on the doorsteps of family and friends

Make king costumes from household items, and host a drive-by or virtual parade

KWANZAA

DECEMBER 26 TO JANUARY 1

Kwanzaa is a seven-day festival that celebrates African and African American culture and history. Festivities usually involve dancing, singing, storytelling and poetry, a large feast, and the lighting of a kinara, which is a seven-branched candleholder. The principles of Kwanzaa include promoting unity, self-determination and working to uplift your community.

SAFER WAYS TO CELEBRATE:

Host virtual kinara lighting with family and friends

Hold a virtual celebration of music, storytelling and poetry. Ask family and friends to share their favorite poem or story

Drop off some traditional foods to loved ones

NEW YEAR

DECEMBER 31 AND JANUARY 1

Celebrations to honor the arrival of the New Year date back 4,000 years to ancient Babylon. New Year's Eve signals the transition from one year to the next and is usually celebrated with sparkle, nostalgia and laughter that culminate in a midnight celebration.

SAFER WAYS TO CELEBRATE:

Send party hats and horns to family and friends in advance

Have a virtual party on New Year's Eve

Watch the New Year's Eve countdown and 'virtually enhanced' iconic Times Square Ball Drop on TV

ORTHODOX CHRISTMAS

JANUARY 7

Many Orthodox Christians celebrate Christmas according to the Julian calendar established by Julius Caesar. Traditions include fasting before the holiday, enjoying music, and a Holy Night Supper — a 12-course meal of vegetarian dishes.

SAFER WAYS TO CELEBRATE:

Send Christmas cards with notes to friends

Host a virtual celebration

Share recipes and make dishes to drop off for your loved ones
