

NASHVILLE ANTI-HUMAN TRAFFICKING COALITION

IMPACT REPORT

AUGUST 2022

Rescuing and Restoring women and children from the bondage of human trafficking and addiction.

MARY TRAPNELL
Founder & Executive Director

Dear friends of NAHT,

As you are reading this, women and children are being bought and sold for sex in every zip code in middle Tennessee. We are in a battle for the heart of our community and now is our time to take a stand and fight back. We cannot let the Human Trafficking industry continue to ravage our cities and the people and families in them.

With broadband internet access available on every mobile device, anyone can buy women and children for sex in the privacy of their home, car or office. The human trafficking industry knows this. Traffickers roll into Nashville and the surrounding areas with drugs and girls to fill the rising demand for both. They not only bring girls to Nashville but they also recruit them from our community. As Middle Tennessee continues to flourish and Nashville proudly wears its name as an "IT city", tourists and businesses are flocking to check us out and many are making Tennessee home. Ruthless traffickers are capitalizing on our growth by offering their horrific "goods and services" at record levels.

To combat this issue, NAHT works closely with law enforcement, non-profits, pastors, teachers, healthcare professionals, therapists and families to RESCUE and RESTORE victims throughout our city and state. We employ Thrivers who can make a connection with victims and offer encouragement and hope to leave their trafficker and receive help for addiction. Trauma bonds with traffickers can be broken and new lives full of hope can be birthed. We see it everyday!

We also KNOW that it is going to take ALL of us to fight for the future of our community. Now is the time. Join us as we say "NAHT (not) on our watch" will citizens of Middle Tennessee blindly allow women and children made in God's image to be sexually exploited for personal gain and pleasure. We believe God is raising up an army and He is calling YOU to enlist.

We are asking you to fund our mission to "reverse the curse" human trafficking has brought to our community. Your support tells victims that:

YOU SEE THEM.
YOU HEAR THEM.
YOU ARE FIGHTING FOR THEM.

In Hope,

Mary Trapnell
