All of the nine above-listed directors were elected to the Board.

Commenting on the AGM, Seabridge Chairman and CEO Rudi Fronk noted the retirement of Fred Banfield from the Board and welcomed Trace Arlaud as a new director to the company. "As shareholders we all owe a huge debt of gratitude to Fred's contributions to Seabridge over the past 21+ years. Thanks in part to his expertise, our estimates of resources and reserves have never been challenged by prospective partners or regulators. At the same time, we are delighted to have Trace Arlaud join our Board. Trace's past industry experience as a seasoned mining expert with significant underground mining experience, including block caving, will broaden our Board's oversight capabilities."

Seabridge holds a 100% interest in several North American gold projects. Seabridge's assets include the KSM and Iskut projects located near Stewart, British Columbia, Canada, the Courageous Lake project located in Canada's Northwest Territories, the Snowstorm project in the Getchell Gold Belt of Northern Nevada and the 3 Aces project located in the Yukon Territory.
