

What's the problem you're trying to solve?

TIPS

Use the left of the canvas for several iterations of your point of view statement, capturing your user, their need, and your key insight. Then use the right of the canvas to flip those statements into 'How might we' questions.

Point of view statements

'How might we' questions
