

A Plainwell native, Nick's childhood was characterized by soccer balls and the ski slopes at Bittersweet. After high school Nick went to Western Michigan University with the desire to become a doctor. During his freshman year the Lord brought Nick to faith through the college ministry, Cru. Grateful for the emphasis on discipleship, evangelism and studying of God's Word Nick saw with this campus ministry he spent a year working with Cru in the Netherlands after graduating. During that year the Lord worked in Nick a desire to serve the local church which culminated in Nick attending Westminster Theological Seminary near Philadelphia. Initially Nick planned to study for a PhD in apologetics, yet the time spent at seminary and spent serving at his church in Philly cultivated a desire to help hurting Christians which naturally led to a change of emphasis in schooling to Biblical Counseling. During his time at Westminster Nick met, and married Juli and the two have been blessed with a growing family. Nick is currently a counselor at Christian Counseling and Education Foundation (CCEF) New England.
