

Angela Lansbury:

is Chairwoman of The Acting Company's Actors Advisory Board and the first recipient of its Lifetime Achievement Award. A five-time Tony winner (Mame, Dear World, Gypsy, Sweeney Todd, Blithe Spirit), Angela is one of the most celebrated stars of the Broadway stage and beloved as the amiable sleuth of TV's Murder She Wrote, which captivated viewers for 12 seasons and won her six Golden Globes. Her film work includes Academy Award nominations for her first two movies – at ages 18 and 19 – Gaslight and The Picture of Dorian Gray. Her numerous awards include a Kennedy Center Honor, National Medal of the Arts, Commander of the British Empire, Theater and Television Halls of Fame, 16 Emmy nominations, honorary degrees, SAG and BAFTA Lifetime Achievement awards and the hearts of audiences everywhere.

