

The Calvin Youth Christian Education Trust
The Calvin Youth Education Trust

Approved by the Session of
Calvin Presbyterian Church at its regular meeting on October 14, 1997, revised November 11, 1997.

The Calvin Youth Christian Education Trust will be managed by the Presbyterian Foundation, Judy Schideler, Development Officer, 1200 SW Alder Street, Portland, Oregon 97205 (503)223-9743.

The Donor has expressed interest in "encouraging and aiding Christian seminary students." The Donor contemplates this Trust will provide money to Calvin Church as a result of dividends from the Trust and Capital Appreciation.

The following guidelines were suggested by the Donor and approved by the Session (upon recommendation from the Student Awards Committee of Calvin Presbyterian Church):

- 1) Recipient needs to be a member of Calvin Presbyterian Church and actively involved in same.
- 2) Preference will be given to an active seminary student in his/her second year (or third), or for post-graduate study for an advanced degree at seminary.
- 3) Then preference will be given to a first year seminary student.
- 4) If there are no seminary candidates, the committee will then consider a Calvin member attending an accredited four year Christian University or College seeking a Christian/Church work related career (e.g., missionary work).
If there are no seminary candidates, the committee will then consider a Calvin member attending an accredited four year University or College (preferably Christian) seeking a degree in professions that relate to social work, teaching or medicine.
- 5) If sufficient funds are available in any given year a second candidate may be considered.
- 6) Preference should be given to the top one or two college (Christian) students rather than dividing the money among many students.
Preference should be given to the top one or two college students rather than dividing the money among many students.
- 7) The money will be paid to the seminary or college/university directly and shall be granted for tuition and fees only -- room, board, etc. will not be covered.
- 8) The church shall be made aware of the Trust, and encourage to contribute to it.
Calvin Presbyterian Church members shall be made aware of the Fund, and encourage to contribute to it.
