DESCRIPTION:

The need for a joint response in a crisis is essential to the successful resolution of any incident. The course is designed to provide a greater understanding of the requirements of joint working, leadership and defensible decision making across all partners involved in the resolution of a critical incident, in accordance with the Joint Emergency Services Interoperability Procedure (JESIP). Our training will enable delegates to understand the pathology of command, the stress indicators on the individual, the decision-making process and a recording mechanism that will stand up to post incident retrospective scrutiny, both Internally and Externally.
