“Where Am I?”

The game can be played individually or in teams, with or without computers.
- If students have computers, the game can be played on Socrative’s Space Race.
- If students don't have computers, the game can be played as a four corner activity. Each corner of the room is marked with a sign: A, B, C, and D. Students answer each question by standing in the appropriate corner.

Where Am I? (Questions and answers; correct answer in bold)

1. I’m in the capital of Israel. Where am I?
   a. Tel Aviv
   b. Haifa
   c. Be’er Sheva
   d. Jerusalem

2. I’m in a city bordering the Red Sea. Where am I?
   a. Eilat
   b. Tiberius
   c. Caesarea
   d. Tel Aviv

3. I’m sitting on the beach next to the Kinneret (Sea of Galilee). Where am I?
   a. Tsfat (Safed)
   b. Tiberius
   c. Ein Gedi
   d. Jerusalem

4. I’m surfing on the Mediterranean. Where am I?
   a. Be’er Sheva
   b. Hebron
   c. Jerusalem
   d. Tel Aviv

5. I’m in the capital of the Negev. Where am I?
   a. Modi’in
   b. Ra’anana
   c. Be’er Sheva
   d. Haifa

6. I’m in the lowest point on earth. Where am I?
   a. Dead Sea
   b. Jordan River
   c. Red Sea
   d. Mediterranean Sea

How did it go? Let us know! learning@nli.org.il 7. I'm visiting the graves of Abraham and Sarah in the Cave of the Patriachs (the Machpela). Where am I?
   a. Jerusalem
   b. Tsfat (Safed)
   c. Hebron
   d. Zichron Ya'akov

8. I'm in the largest city in the Galilee region. Where am I?
   a. Haifa
   b. Kiryat Shemona
   c. Tsfat (Safed)
   d. Metulla

9. I'm in the city with Israel's largest port. Where am I?
   a. Eilat
   b. Haifa
   c. Akko
   d. Ashdod

10. I'm at Ben-Gurion airport. Which city am I in?
    a. Tel Aviv
    b. Jerusalem
    c. Ashdod
    d. Lod