1. What can you see on the poster? __________________

2. How many of them do you see? __________________

3. What language is the poster written in? ________________

4. Choose one of the trees on the poster and draw it in the box.

5. Describe two of your favorite photographs on the poster.
   What can you see?______________________________
   ____________________________________________
   ____________________________________________

   Why did you choose these photographs? __________________
   ____________________________________________

6. The poster is asking us to protect trees and bushes.
   What do humans use trees for? __________________
   ____________________________________________

7. What do animals use trees for? __________________
   ____________________________________________

8. Why do you think that trees need to be protected? Who harms the trees?
   ____________________________________________
   ____________________________________________

9. How can we protect trees?
   ____________________________________________
   ____________________________________________

10. The trees on the poster can be found in Israel. Do any of these trees grow in your neighborhood?
    ____________________________________________
    ____________________________________________

11. Have you ever been to Israel? Have you ever seen any of these trees?
    ____________________________________________
    ____________________________________________

12. How is this poster connected to Tu B’Shvat? __________________
    ____________________________________________
    ____________________________________________

How did it go? Let us know! learning@nli.org.il