

The contractors for the culvert project will be working on Saturday, July 24th.

As the normal work schedule for the job is Monday through Friday, this is a special circumstance with the contractor working in one area on one task.

The Saturday work is needed to ensure the overall schedule for the project can be maintained.

A more detailed weekly update will be provided at a later time.