

Immediation Panel Member

Anne Toohey

Anne is a barrister at Canterbury Chambers in Christchurch and has a general practice in civil, employment and criminal litigation. Prior to joining the independent bar, she worked from admission in 1996 as a civil and criminal litigator in Wellington and Christchurch. She was a Crown prosecutor and Crown counsel.

Anne is currently a panel prosecutor for the Serious Fraud Office, conducts criminal appeals and health and safety and workplace investigations, is appointed as a counsel assisting in coronial, civil and criminal matters, and is currently a counsel assisting to the Royal Commission for Abuse.

Further biography and contact details here.

To enquire about Anne Toohey assisting with a sport or recreation complaint or dispute please call 0800 493 612 with no obligation to proceed.