

MARCH Love Our City - Love Your Local

Allison Street restaurants, Surfers Paradise

The intersection of Surfers Paradise Boulevard and Allison Street in Surfers Paradise is brimming with food options from around the world.

Indulge in a taste of Europe from Prague Restaurant whose staff will make your Czech dining experience a memorable one. If you appreciate an imported boutique beer, the team can recommend some excellent Czech brews including Budejovicky Budvar, Kozel and Pilsner Urquell.

Fusion is the current foody fashion, so make sure you check out La Rustica for a great blend of Italian and Turkish cuisine. La Rustica's large portions make it a great hunger busting option that won't hurt your hip pocket.

Take a few steps and make your way across the globe to Sher E Punjab to sample the exotic fragrances and flavours of India. Whether you're after a flaming hot vindaloo or a mild butter chicken, Sher E Punjab offers everything Indian lovers desire for a perfect meal.

A few more steps and you can sample the flavours of the east at Ocean Seafood Chinese Restaurant. Ocean Seafood has a reputation for bringing the freshest seafood flavours with a Chinese twist. From crab, crayfish, prawns to fish, Ocean Seafood are the seafood specialists.

If you like your food flashy and flying, Koo Koo Teppanyaki Bar will have you buzzing with excitement. The talented chefs will turn your dining experience into a performance of skill and precision filled with frivolity, fun and flavour.

The Allison Street restaurants are just a short stroll from Cavill Avenue, making them a convenient dinner option before a night out on the glitter strip.
