Welcome to the March edition of Love Our City - Love Your Local

Olympic Circuit

Just off the beaten track and located near the new light rail depot site, Olympic Circuit in Southport has many hidden treasures and is a local business hub.

Turn up the heat at Bikram Yoga Southport. From beginners to the experienced, practice with the team on Olympic Circuit to feel the life changing difference from hot yoga and revitalise your health and wellness.

If you're looking for an activity for your kids, don't look past Kids on the Block – Southport's own dance academy. With teachers who have featured on So You Think You Can Dance, Australian Idol and Australia's Got Talent, Kids on the Block's focus is on delivering versatile and fun classes at a competitive price to all their students.

Is your DVD player or flat screen television on the fritz? The Video Factory in Southport is your one stop shop for all your audio visual equipment repair needs. Supporting extended warranties from names like Myer, Domayne, The Good Guys, JB Hi-Fi, Harvey Norman and David Jones, the Video Factory will have your equipment back up and running in no time.

Do you want the goodness of a gourmet meal, but don't have the time to cook it yourself? The Busy Kitchen offers a full menu of delicious take-home gourmet meals prepared by professionals. Let international chef Guy Moutin and his team cater to you.

Bookworms will love Book Empire. You can browse their entire catalogue and place orders online, or, for an authentic book shopping experience, you can visit their warehouse which is open to the public.

For a gold medal experience, explore Olympic Circuit to discover what these businesses have on offer and see what other hidden treasures are waiting to be uncovered.
