Taste the world in Southport

Long hailed as the Gold Coast's business district, Southport has evolved to offer some of the best multicultural cuisine available in Australia catering to almost every taste imaginable.

Your options start with a local flare, ranging from good Aussie tucker and pub meals at the Cecil Hotel to contemporary Australian dining at The Vault and Mestige. The great Australian fare continues at Outback Jack's on the Nerang River.

Southport's offerings branch out and mix the tastes of home with familiar overseas favourites. Putting an Australian twist on the classic American burger, Bam Burgers has become famous for their excellent array of burger options and have cemented their place as a Southport lunch favourite.

Moving continents to Asia, Southport features some excellent casual dining options including Soho Noodles for Asian noodle hunger-busters, Rice House with its Korean menu and national sensation Ichiban Boshi for Japanese. The menus in these restaurants won't break the budget but promise to have you coming back for more with their quality and service second to none.

Baytuti brings the tastes and delights of the Middle East, Morocco and Africa to Southport. Offering rice bursting with flavour, meats so tender they fall apart and exquisite and exotic teas, herbs and spices, Baytuti will not disappoint with its rustic and authentic cuisine.

Southport caters to lovers of Italian dining as well, with Bella Donna at The Shores making you feel as though you've stepped from a villa in Italy onto the streets of Rome. Excellent service in this family friendly restaurant will have you back for seconds and thirds.

Tastes from across the globe are all within walking distance from the central hub of Australia Fair in Southport, so make a trip for lunch or dinner to the Gold Coast's own multicultural dining hotspot.
