

CHARTER OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE
OF THE
BOARD OF DIRECTORS
OF RICEBRAN TECHNOLOGIES

I. PURPOSE

This Charter specifies the scope of the responsibilities of the Compensation Committee (the "Committee") of the Board of Directors (the "Board") of RiceBran Technologies (the "Company") and the manner in which those responsibilities shall be performed, including its structure, processes and membership requirements.

The primary purpose of the Committee is to discharge the Board's responsibilities relating to compensation and benefits of the Company's executive officers. In carrying out these responsibilities, the Committee shall review all components of executive officer compensation for consistency with the Committee's compensation philosophy as in effect from time to time.

The Committee is also responsible for producing an annual report on executive compensation for inclusion in the Company's proxy statement, in accordance with applicable rules and regulations.

II. ORGANIZATION AND MEMBERSHIP REQUIREMENTS

The Compensation Committee will be made up of no fewer than two (2) members, each of whom shall be independent as defined in the Nasdaq Marketplace Rules and the rules promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission under Section 16(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended and not accept directly or indirectly any consulting, advisory or other compensatory fee from the Company or any subsidiary thereof.

The members shall be appointed by the Board and shall serve until their successors are duly elected and qualified or their earlier resignation or removal. Any member of the Committee may be replaced by the Board. Unless a chairman is elected by the Board, the members of the Committee may designate a chairman by the majority vote of the full Committee membership. The Committee may from time to time delegate duties or responsibilities to subcommittees or to one member of the Committee.

III. MEETINGS

The Committee shall have the authority to obtain advice or assistance from consultants, legal counsel, accounting or other advisors as appropriate, to perform its duties hereunder and to determine the terms, costs and fees for such engagements. Without limitation, the Committee shall have the sole authority to retain or terminate any consulting firm used to evaluate CEO or executive compensation, and to determine and approve the terms of engagement the fees and costs for such engagements. The fees and costs of any consultant or advisor engaged by the Committee to assist in it in performing any duties hereunder shall be borne by the Company.

The Committee shall meet as often as it deems appropriate, but not less frequently than once each year, to review the compensation of the executive officers and other employees of the Company, and otherwise perform its duties under this charter.

The Committee shall maintain written minutes of its meetings, which minutes will be filed with the minutes of the meetings of the Board.

IV. COMMITTEE AUTHORITY AND RESPONSIBILITIES

To fulfill its responsibilities and duties, the Committee shall:

1. Determine all compensation for the Chief Executive Officer and all other Executive Officers, including incentive-based and equity-based compensation. The Chief Executive Officer may not be present during such voting or deliberations.
2. Review and approve annual performance objectives and goals relevant to compensation for the Chief Executive Officer and all other Executive Officers and evaluate the performance of such officer in light of these goals and objectives.
3. Consider, in determining the long-term incentive component of compensation for the Chief Executive Officer, the Company's performance and relative shareholder return, the value of similar incentive awards to chief executive officers at comparable companies, and the awards given to the Company's Chief Executive Officer in past years.
4. Make recommendations to the Board regarding incentive-based or equity-based compensation plans in which the Company's executive officers participate, and review and approve salaries, incentive and equity awards for other executive officers and employees and oversee the evaluation of management.
5. Approve all employment, severance, or change-in-control agreements, special or supplemental benefits, or provisions including the same, applicable to executive officers.
6. Prepare an annual report on executive compensation for inclusion in the Company's proxy statement for the annual meeting of stockholders, in accordance with applicable rules and regulations.
7. Perform such other activities consistent with this Charter, the Company's Bylaws and governing law, as the Committee or the Board deems necessary or appropriate.
8. Review and reassess the adequacy of this Charter as appropriate and recommend any proposed changes to the Board for approval.
9. Review and evaluate the Committee's own performance on an annual basis.
10. In the Committee's sole discretion, retain or obtain the advice of a compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser, and be directly responsible for the appointment, compensation and oversight of the work thereof.
