

USC Alumni Center

University of South Carolina
Columbia Campus

This project is a 60,000 SF alumni center located in the Vista area of Columbia near the campus of USC. The building features flexible event, meeting and administrative space. The HVAC systems and scope included new roof top units, split systems, terminal boxes, distribution ductwork and building controls.