

TAX CALENDAR 2022

INTRODUCTION

The Tax Year 2020 and 2021 brought radical changes to our lives in the most fundamental respects. The Phenomenon of Covid19 has affected our lives in ways that were inconceivable a year ago. Not since the 2013 economic crisis has Cyprus collectively shared an experience of this kind: a single, lingering crisis, structuring the rhythm of our daily lives within a complex calculus of risk and competing probabilities.

But even though the pandemic has dominated our thoughts and shifted our priorities, life goes on. We need to look ahead and start dealing with 2022. In case you are wondering what are the Tax filing and payment deadlines for 2022, read on. It is noted that keeping a Tax diary is very important if you want to be proactive and up to date with your Tax compliance obligations and avoid paying unnecessary interest and penalties.

Hence, ELTOMA (CYPRUS) LIMITED with the below Tax diary shows the Cyprus Tax due dates for 2022 by month that apply to both individuals and companies. This way, you and your company will always be up to date and know exactly your Tax due dates and plan accordingly. Of course, you could pay your Taxes and submit the relevant returns before the deadline, which will ensure that no interest and penalties will be imposed. It is noted that payment can only be executed electronically either through JCC Smart Portal or through E-Banking via the Tax Portal.

An additional penalty of 5% is imposed if the tax remains unpaid 2 months after the payment deadline.
Notes	(a) The Cyprus tax year coincides with the calendar year, 1 January - 31 December. So, for example, the 2022 tax year begins on 1 January 2022 and ends on 31 December 2022. (b) The personal income tax returns can only be submitted electronically. Manually submission is no longer permitted, except in cases of revised income tax returns. From tax year 2016 onwards, a revised tax return can be submitted within three years from the submission deadline of the relevant tax return. The submission of a revised income tax return is effected only through the submission of Forms T.D.001AN2020 (Individuals) and T.D.004AN2020 (Companies). (c) From the tax year 2021 onwards, all individuals with a gross income that falls under the provisions of Article 5 of the Income Tax Law are obliged to submit a personal income tax return. Gross income that falls under the provisions of Article 5 of the Income Tax Law includes, amongst others, salaries, rents, royalties, pensions, dividends, interest and profits from share dealings (before any deductions, reliefs and credits) which may be exempt from the income tax and/or special contribution for defense. The Council of Ministers is also empowered to issue decrees, which will specify which categories of taxpayers with a total annual gross income below the taxable threshold of €19.500 will be exempted from the obligation to submit a tax return.

Up until tax year 2020, individuals with gross income not exceeding €19.500 (tax-free threshold) were not obliged to submit a personal income tax return, unless they received a notice/request for submission.

(d) In cases where the deadline for the submission of a tax return or payment of a tax or other liability falls on a Saturday or Sunday or Public holiday, the deadline for complying with these obligations is extended until the next business day.

(e) Any person who is fraudulently delaying or omitting to pay taxes or any person who delays payment of withheld taxes i.e. from salaries (such as PAYE and special contribution), payments to non-residents (such as films and royalties), as well as defense tax withheld from dividends, interest and rental income is guilty of a criminal offence and is liable to fines and imprisonment in the case of individuals.

In the case of a company the directors, executive managers and accountants are also liable for penalties and imprisonment.
