

Quest 52 LESSON 15 Can Jesus Turn My Storm into a Story?

Biblical Concept: Chaos

Read: Mark 4:35–5:20 with Matthew 8:23–34; Luke 8:22–39

LESSON VIDEO Link

<https://vimeo.com/589406160>

KEY POINTS

- In the storm, Jesus proved to be more than his disciples ever imagined. He is, in fact, Creator God, with the power to order the inanimate.
- Jesus values you above all else in his creation.
- Your story, as painful as it may be, has more potential to bring healing than your past ever had to bring destruction.

THIS WEEK

Day 1 (Eyes): After reading chapter 15 in Quest 52, consider this question: think through one simple question: Are you more afraid of Jesus or the storm you face?

Day 2 (Ears): Look at the cross-references of Psalm 2 in the margin of a study Bible to discover the three verses of Psalm 2 that are quoted in the New Testament. Each is a prophecy about Jesus. Read them in the context of each New Testament passage. What do they affirm about Jesus and his ability to take us through storms?

Day 3 (Heart): Meditate on Ephesians 1:20–21; Colossians 2:9; Revelation 1:17–18. According to these three passages, how do people underestimate who Jesus is?

Day 4 (Voice): Discussion:

- Share the story of someone you know whose past pain has been a great encouragement or inspiration to you.
- If you are willing, share the most difficult thing you have ever had to go through.
- What advice or encouragement would you give to the ex- demoniac between when Jesus left in the boat and when he returned home to share his experience.
- Which piece of advice that you just heard do you need to implement to share your story more broadly?

Day 5 (Hands): Do this week what Jesus told the ex- demoniac to do: “Go home to your friends and tell them how much the Lord has done for you, and how he has had mercy on you” (Mark 5:19).

ADDITIONAL QUEST 52 RESOURCES

www.quest52.com/resources

(FOR CHAPTER 15)

- Bonus Resource: The Power of Jesus (PDF)
- "Life of Christ" Audio Lecture (located under "Chapter 15")