KEY POINTS

- Martha and Mary both approached Jesus with the same statement yet got totally different responses. Jesus will meet you where you are and with what you need.
- Jesus knew he was going to raise Lazarus yet was swept up in the emotions of the moment. He feels what you feel and will stand with you in your grief.
- The raising of Lazarus is a sign not only of what Jesus will do for us but also of what he has already done for us spiritually.

THIS WEEK

Day 1 (Eyes): After reading chapter 22 in Quest 52, consider this question: what area of your life would you like Jesus to breathe life into?

Day 2 (Ears): Read 1 Kings 17:8–24 and 2 Kings 4:18–37. What are the similarities between Jesus raising Lazarus, and Elijah and Elisha raising someone from the dead?

Day 3 (Heart): Meditate on 1 Corinthians 6:14; 15:20–28; 2 Corinthians 4:14. How do these promises that Jesus will raise us from the dead compare to what he did for Lazarus?

Day 4 (Voice): Discussion:

- Do you think most people are afraid to die? How can you tell?
- Have you noticed a difference between Christian funerals and those of nonbelievers?
- Why does death feel so unnatural to us? What can you do to live without that fear of death?
- What area of your life right now could use a bit more life? How could Jesus speak life into that area?

Day 5 (Hands): This may seem a bit morbid, but it could provide important insight. Sit down and write your own obituary. What do you want people to remember about how you lived?
