SUMMER SEASON

UTV EXPERIENCE SUNSET

An Autumn UTV drive through the local wilderness as the sun sets.

As the darkness returns and the sun starts to set again the opportunity arises to experience driving your UTV through the local wilderness and viewing the setting sun.

The Autumn colours are enhanced by the special evening sky colours which often occur at this time of year. Autumn is often considered the best season in the high Arctic due to the special lights and feeling of tranquillity. Your guide will choose the best route to follow and will stop at various lookouts to tell some stories of the local wilderness including about the famous Salmon fishing and Sami reindeer culture.
