NEBRASKA AND THE NATION NEEDS PRAYER

* INTERVIEW TIMES AVAILABLE *

Washington, D.C. – Republican gubernatorial candidate, Charles W. Herbster, joins million in prayer for Nebraskans and the nation.

For more than 20 years, Mr. Herbster has been volunteering and providing financial support for the National Day of Prayer Task Force.

During Mr. Herbster's annual trip to Washington, D.C., he offers his ongoing support for the National Day of Prayer and the hope it provides.

"MATTHEW 18:20 says: 'For where two or three gather in my name, there am I with them.' God is listening. As our nation recovers from months of unprecedented challenges, we must let God guide our actions to help our neighbors. Join me in this year's prayer. LORD pour out Your LOVE, LIFE, and LIBERTY."
