BIDEN ABANDONS GOD WHEN OUR NATION NEEDS HIM MOST

* INTERVIEW TIMES AVAILABLE *

Omaha, NE – Nebraska Republican gubernatorial candidate, Charles W. Herbster, calls on President Joe Biden to put God first instead of appeasing a radical left-wing agenda, promoting the abolition of God in our country.

U.S. Presidents, including Bill Clinton and Barack Obama, have honored the tradition of calling on the nation to pray to God for nearly 70 years. On Thursday, President Biden's remarks were absent of any mention of God.

For more than 20 years, Mr. Herbster has traveled to Washington D.C. to join millions in prayer for Nebraska and the nation. On this National Day of Prayer, he was shocked to see a sitting President of the United States defy faith.

"God was with us today even though President Biden doesn't think so. His omission of our Lord and Savior from the Presidential Prayer Proclamation is shameful on a day where so many Americans turn to Him."

Mr. Herbster will continue to offer his support for the National Day of Prayer and the hope it provides.
