IN NEBRASKA, WE MUST TEACH OUR CHILDREN TO LOVE, NOT HATE, AMERICA

Omaha, Nebraska – Republican gubernatorial candidate, Charles W. Herbster, vows to protect Nebraska students and families from Critical Race Theory.

Critical Race Theory teaches our children that the foundation of our nation is based on racism. The radical liberal agenda is pushing for the incorporation of this theory in our classrooms across the Great State of Nebraska.

Charles W. Herbster will not allow Critical Race Theory into the elementary, middle school, high school, and higher education schools across Nebraska. We call on the Nebraska Board of Regents, including Jim Pillen, to denounce Critical Race Theory in our University system.

In this endeavor, Charles W. Herbster and his running mate, Theresa Thibodeau, pledged to protect and defend Nebraskan values with 1776 Action. The team said, "We are honored to be the first gubernatorial ticket in the country to sign 'The 1776 Pledge to Save our Schools.' This Pledge promises to restore truthful patriotic education, recognize the exceptional nature of the United States of America, focus study on our founding documents, and respect our founding principles of liberty and equality."
