
LATROBE MAGNESIUM LIMITED - WHISTLEBLOWER POLICY

1. Background and Purpose

Whistleblowers are those who sound the alert on danger, malpractice, bribery or corruption or other illegal conduct.

This Latrobe Magnesium Limited Whistleblower Policy (the "Policy") outlines the rights of all employees and stakeholders of Latrobe Magnesium Limited to:

- (a) report in good faith any perceived wrong doing, impropriety, serious unethical behaviour, legal or regulatory non-compliance or questionable accounting or audit matter; and
- (b) expect and receive protection from any reprisal or detrimental action resulting from such disclosure.

This Policy covers the processes for dealing with disclosures made by employees and stakeholders of suspected improper conduct within Latrobe Magnesium Limited in a confidential and secure manner and is intended to apply to whistleblowers in all countries in which Latrobe Magnesium Limited operates.

Latrobe Magnesium Limited is committed to the highest standards of conduct and ethical behaviour in all of our business activities, and to promoting and supporting a culture of honest and ethical behaviour, corporate compliance and strong corporate governance.

This policy is available on the website of Latrobe Magnesium Limited.

2. Scope

This Policy applies to:

- (a) all employees of Latrobe Magnesium Limited, whether full-time, part-time or casual, at any level of seniority and wherever employed; and
- (b) employees or principals of organisations which have a commercial relationship with Latrobe Magnesium Limited as customers, suppliers, consultants, advisers, agents or otherwise.

This Policy supplements any other policies applicable to Latrobe Magnesium Limited.

3. Policy and Procedure

Employees and stakeholders are encouraged make a report under this policy if they have reasonable grounds to suspect that a Latrobe Magnesium Limited director, officer, employee, contractor, supplier, tenderer or other person who has business dealings with Latrobe Magnesium Limited has engaged in conduct which:

- (a) is dishonest, fraudulent or corrupt, including bribery
- (b) is illegal activity (such as theft, violence, harassment or intimidation, criminal damage to property or other breaches of state or federal law);

- (c) is unethical or in breach of Latrobe Magnesium Limited policies (such as dishonestly altering company records or data, adopting questionable accounting practices or willfully breaching Latrobe Magnesium Limited Code of Conduct or other policies or procedures);
- (d) is potentially damaging to Latrobe Magnesium Limited, a Latrobe Magnesium Limited employee or a third party, such as unsafe work practices, environmental damage, health risks or abuse of Latrobe Magnesium Limited property or resources;
- (e) amounts to an abuse of authority;
- (f) may cause financial loss to Latrobe Magnesium Limited or damage its reputation or be otherwise detrimental to Latrobe Magnesium Limited interests;
- (g) involves harassment, discrimination, victimisation or bullying, other than personal work-related grievances as defined in the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) (Corporations Act); or
- (h) involves any other kind of misconduct or an improper state of affairs or circumstances.

Who can disclosures be made to?

- (a) Compliance Officer: John Lee at john@johnrlee.com.au
- (b) Alternate Compliance Officer: Jock Murray at jock@jismurray.com.au

It is important to note that under the Corporations Act, the whistleblower may also raise the matter with an “officer” or “senior manager” of the company. These are defined in the Corporations Act as “a director, or a senior manager in the company who makes, or participates in making, decisions that affect the whole, or a substantial part, of the business of the company, or who has the capacity to affect significantly the company's financial standing.”

In making a disclosure under this Policy, employees and stakeholders must act in good faith on a genuine belief that there has been wrongdoing, and not for any malicious purpose. Where it is determined that a disclosure is made by an employee falsely or for a malicious purpose, Latrobe Magnesium Limited reserves the right to take disciplinary action against the disclosing employee.

Employees and stakeholders disclosing wrongdoing will be protected and the investigation will be conducted in accordance with the principles of fairness and natural justice.

4. Responsibility for Policy Compliance and Review

The Compliance Officer for Latrobe Magnesium Limited is responsible for:

- (a) the overall administration of this Policy;
- (b) monitor the implementation of this Policy and will review on an ongoing basis the Policy's suitability and effectiveness.
- (c) seek to protect the whistleblower from Detrimental Conduct;
- (d) assist the whistleblower in maintaining wellbeing;
- (e) maintain whistleblower confidentiality, where relevant, including as required by law;
- (f) review and consider any complaints of Detrimental Conduct or any concern that disclosure has not been dealt with in accordance with this policy; and

- (g) escalate any matter the Compliance Officer considers appropriate to the escalation officer.

5. Detrimental Conduct Prohibited

Latrobe Magnesium Limited strictly prohibits all forms of Detrimental Conduct against whistleblowers. Detrimental Conduct means any actual or threatened conduct that could cause a detriment to the whistleblower as a result of the whistleblower making a disclosure, including:

- (a) termination of employment;
- (b) harassment, bullying or intimidation;
- (c) personal or financial disadvantage;
- (d) unlawful discrimination;
- (e) harm or injury, including psychological harm;
- (f) damage to reputation; or
- (g) any other conduct that constitutes retaliation.

Latrobe Magnesium Limited will take all reasonable steps to protect the whistleblower from Detrimental Conduct and will take action it considers appropriate where such conduct is identified.

Latrobe Magnesium Limited also strictly prohibits all forms of Detrimental Conduct against people who are involved in an investigation of a disclosure in response to their involvement in that investigation.

6. Internal Investigation

Disclosures which are personal work-related grievances will be investigated by Company Secretary, John Lee.

Whistleblower disclosures made under this Policy will be documented and investigated promptly, initially by an internal investigator.

The internal investigator is required to:

- (a) act impartially and document the disclosure;
- (b) conduct all interviews; and
- (c) report on the results of the investigation and any recommendations. All investigations will be carried out as quickly as is practicable.

While maintaining confidentiality at all times, all serious disclosures and progress of any investigation will be drawn to the attention of the Escalation Manager, Jock Murray. If the disclosure is the subject of an internal investigation which reveals genuine issues to be addressed by Latrobe Magnesium Limited, the Escalation Manager will instruct management to take remedial action.

7. External Investigation

If an internal investigator determines that there is an activity or conduct within Latrobe Magnesium Limited which is potentially illegal, the Escalation Manager may decide to engage an external investigator.

In this event:

- (a) The discloser will be afforded appropriate protection and Latrobe Magnesium Limited will, to the extent it can do so and is legally permitted, keep in confidence the identity of the discloser.
- (b) The matter may be reported to the relevant regulatory authority or police agency.
- (c) The identity of the disclosing employee or stakeholder will only be disclosed to the relevant regulatory or police agency on the basis that, where legally permitted, the employee or stakeholder's identity will be kept confidential.
- (d) Disclosure of the identity of the disclosing employee or stakeholder to any other organisation or person will require the consent of the disclosing person.
- (e) The internal investigator will also ensure that the matter is reported to the Escalation Manager.

8. After Disclosure

The discloser will always be informed of the outcome at the conclusion of the investigation. Latrobe Magnesium Limited will not tolerate any reprisals against employees or stakeholders who have made a disclosure of any matter under this Policy where the discloser has acted in good faith and on a genuine belief or perception of wrongdoing, and on reasonable grounds. Latrobe Magnesium Limited will act in the best interests of a discloser to protect them from any victimisation, adverse reaction or intimidation, and commits to ensure confidentiality (to the extent permitted by law) and fairness in all matters raised under this Policy.

9. Special protections under Part 9.4AAA of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth)

The Corporations Act gives special protection to disclosures about any misconduct or improper state of affairs relating to Latrobe Magnesium Limited if the following conditions are satisfied:

- (a) the whistleblower is or has been:
 - (i) an officer or employee of Latrobe Magnesium Limited;
 - (ii) an individual who supplies goods or services to Latrobe Magnesium Limited or an employee of a person who supplies goods or services to Latrobe Magnesium Limited;
