

New Pathways for Good Dads Graduation

Thursday, November 11, 2021, was a momentous day for 21 dads who graduated from the New Pathways for Good Dads program. The Downtown Church graciously opened their doors to us and allowed us the use of their facilities. Local radio personality, J Fotsch, was the Master of Ceremonies. Mark Mildren, a retired Good Dads facilitator, offered the opening and closing prayers and Sally Herman, a current Good Dads facilitator shared words of wisdom and encouragement for all in attendance. Joseph Fowler, a graduate of the NPGD program, graced us with his musical talents, and Good Dads Founder and Executive Director, Dr. Jennifer Baker, shared her thoughts and best wishes for each of the "Good Dads". Thank you to all of our facilitators who have invested their time and talents in these men. We appreciate you and your dedication. Click on the picture to view the graduation ceremony.
