

Get involved

You can help create a new supportive housing organization in Alameda County.

Focus Groups

SHCLA would like to meet with Alameda County residents living with serious mental health conditions (and their family members) to envision housing and services for the organization. Participants will be paid for their time.

Who

Must be an Alameda County resident (or family member of), living with serious mental illness (SMI) and household income below 30% Average Median Income.

What

Participate in a 90-minute focus group via Zoom or Phone. Feedback will be considered as we develop the organization, its housing and supportive services

Compensation will be $75 per participant.

Learn more at www.shcla.land

Complete a survey

bit.ly/CLA-focusgroup

¹ All applicants will be considered, selection not guaranteed.