What is AERDROP?

Aerdrop provides a truly decentralized, horizontally scalable system for incentivized token holding. It is the birth of an ecosystem that allows for cross-pollination shareholder rewards. All shareholders will be awarded extra tokens for holding until predetermined intervals.

How?

We have done this by creating a token distribution protocol which automatically rewards based on predetermined milestones reached.

Horizontally Scalable

An ecosystem has been developed which allows for collaborative “aerdrops” with all other DeFi tokens in the market. Any utility token which would like to initiate milestone dependent shareholder reward can simply integrate with our blockchain protocol on the Binance Smart Chain and effortlessly create value for everyone involved in the project. This in turn, allocates token rewards in virtually endless diversity of additional tokens for every shareholder in AERDROP.

The Process

Simple. As AIRDROP grows, its holders receive complimentary bonus coins. As the system grows across multiple currencies, it creates a node with every partner token via AERSTATION. These nodes are locked in for reward distribution campaigns for all shareholders in the partner token, as well as AERDROP shareholders.

Global $AER strategy

THE PROBLEM Rug pulls and scams.

THE SOLUTION Create a system based on community trust and transparency to launch a coin that can succeed and add value to the crypto world.

The first step was creating a strong concept project that would attract investors while working as a nexus between us and future partners, that's AERDROP.

We aim to be as clear as possible, avoiding big wallets, maintaining a steady growth and creating a strong community.

AERSTATION

The launchpad for all partner protocols within the DeFi ecosystem. All shareholders of AERDROP will automatically have ownership in AERSTATION. Officially the first Defi ad network with direct ROI to holders & 3rd party tokens.
