

The Governance of the Trust

Mission Statement

The Plater Trust enables people to learn how the way we live and work can become more fully human in the light of the Gospel and the application of Catholic social teaching.

Charitable Status

The Trust is fully registered with the Charity Commission (charitable number 309719).

Trustees

Cardinal Vincent Nichols
(Chair)

Cardinal Archbishop of Westminster

Bishop Paul McAleenan

Auxiliary Bishop of Westminster

Philomena Cullen

Visiting lecturer at the Margaret Beaufort Institute of Theology

Russell Sparkes

Chief Investment Officer, Methodist Church

Catherine Sexton

Senior management posts with charities (CAFOD, VSO) and consultancy to DFID, Big Lottery Fund etc.

Richard Hopper

Consultant human resource professional

Michael Walsh

Economist working in the trade union movement, trustee of Mind and governor of the former Plater College

Cathy Corcoran

Former Chief Executive of Cardinal Hume Centre.

Grant-Making Body

Philomena Cullen (Chair)	Trustee
Michael Walsh	Trustee
Cathy Corcoran	Trustee
Catherine Sexton	Trustee
Richard Hopper	Trustee
Elizabeth Slinn	Chair of the Diocese of Portsmouth Budget Committee
Andrew Haines	Former senior manager and trustee in the charity sector.

Finance Committee

Russell Sparkes	Trustee
Elizabeth Slinn	Chair of the Diocese of Portsmouth Budget Committee
Sophia Pain	IT & project management consultant
Andrew Haines	Former senior manager and trustee in the charity sector