

COOKIE POLICY

The terra.money website (“Website”) and its related software, products and services (collectively, the “Services”) use cookies to gather User data to support Website analytics, improve the Website performance and enhance your User experience. This policy (the “Policy”) describes what cookies are and how they're being used by terra.money website (“Website” or “Service”). Please read this Policy and all its terms and conditions carefully. By accessing and using the Website and Services you agree to be bound by this Policy.

You have the right to choose whether or not to accept cookies. However, please note that if you choose to refuse cookies you may not be able to use the full functionality of our Websites and Services. Most browsers allow you to change your cookie settings. These settings will typically be found in the “options” or “preferences” menu of your browser. For further information on how we use, store, and keep your personal data secure, see our Terms of Use policy.

1. What are Cookies?

Cookies are small text files containing information which are downloaded to your computer or mobile devices when websites are loaded in a browser. Cookies are widely used to improve Website performance and enhance User experience as well as to retrieve and retain customer preferences, either for a single visit (through a "session cookie") or for multiple repeat visits (using a "persistent cookie").

2. How does terra.money use Cookies?

Terra uses cookies to:

- Track Website traffic and usage;
- Monitor the performance of the Websites and Services; and
- Allow us to customize and enhance your online experience

3. What Cookies does terra.money use?

Essential Cookies allow you to access the features and services available through the Website. You cannot access services without these cookies.

Functionality Cookies allow us to operate the Website and Services and customize it in accordance with the choices you make. Functionality cookies include location, settings [text, layout], store accessibility options, language and currency preferences.

Performance / Analytics Cookies collect aggregated data to analyze how the Websites and Services are accessed, used, and are performing. We also collect information about which search terms you are using in our site's search bar.

Social Media Cookies are anonymous cookies used by third parties that provide applications to track the performance and to customize their applications for you. For example, when you share an article using a social media sharing button on our Websites (e.g., Twitter), the social network that has created the clickable button will record that you have done this. We cannot access these cookies nor can the third parties access the data in cookies used by us. Some pages on our Websites may also contain embedded content, such as video content from YouTube, that may set their own cookies.

4. Changes and Amendments to this Cookie Policy

We reserve the right to modify this Policy or its terms at our discretion. Any updated version of this Policy will be effective immediately upon the posting of the revised Policy unless otherwise specified. We will also post a notice on the Website if we make any material changes in the way we collect, use, or share the information held in the Website cookies.

5. Contact Us

If you have any questions, concerns, or complaints regarding this Policy or the use of Cookies, we encourage you to contact us at general@terra.money.
