Legal Disclaimers

Wen Audit provides project audits for various chain projects. We cannot predict or prevent a project from rugpulling, creating a honeypot, pulling liquidity (this is possible even when liquidity is locked) or exit scamming in general.

Agreeing to an audit with Wen Audit is a step in the right direction and is the first sign of trust in a project but cannot guarantee that you will not lose all of your money. It is your responsibility to fully vet any project for investment purposes. Wen Audit has a hard stance that we will not recommend or endorse any project for investment and strongly recommend against it.

YOUR EXCLUSIVE REMEDY FOR DISSATISFACTION WITH THIS REPORT AND ALL OF IT'S CONTENTS IS TO STOP USING THE REPORT AND CONTENTS. WEN AUDIT IS NOT LIABLE FOR ANY DIRECT, INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, CONSEQUENTIAL, SPECIAL OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES. THESE REPORTS ARE FOR INFORMATIONAL PURPOSES ONLY AND SHOULD NOT BE CONSIDERED INVESTMENT ADVICE.

What are Transaction Taxes?

Transaction Taxes are a fee that is charged on every buy and sell transaction. This has become very common in the DeFi space. These fees fund numerous items outlined by projects. These fees can go to reward token holders, marketing purposes, providing liquidity and sometimes even buy back or burns. This token contains no transaction taxes.

● Mint Function?

At the time of audit a mint function existed in the contract.
We do not see this as an inherent risk if you trust the team
AND there is a valid use for the mint function in the utility of the token

● Liquidity Locked?

Locked liquidity information has been provided.
Liquidity is locked until June 2023 on Cryptex.

● Renounced Ownership?

At this time ownership of the contract has not been renounced meaning the team is able to make changes to the contract including trading fees.

Smart Contract Code Check >

What did we check?

We focus on a small number of vulnerabilities that we know have caused loss of funds in the past. These are some of the basic checks every project should have in place.

PLAIN ENGLISH VERSION OF ABOVE TEXT

In plain English the legal speak above says: We are not responsible if a project is a rugpull, honeypot or outright scam. We do not endorse any project and do not recommend an investment in any cryptocurrency project. If you decide to put money into a project that we have provided an audit report for and you lose all of your money – you are the only one to blame.
