B2C2

24/7 Crypto Liquidity
b2c2.com

Financial institutions trust B2C2 for seamless cryptocurrency trading, with plug-and-play connectivity, post-trade settlement, and professional service.

▪ 24/7 liquidity across conditions

Trusted by 500+ institutional clients, we are the backbone of liquidity provision in the institutional crypto market. Significant OTC desks, FX brokers, aggregators and hedge funds trading crypto rely on B2C2 liquidity.

▪ Flexible trade sizes

We have traded over half a trillion dollars in cryptocurrency since 2015, ranging from small trades to multi-million-dollar blocks.

▪ Transparent prices

We stream prices electronically in all major crypto and fiat. With no per-transaction execution or settlement fees.

▪ Bespoke solutions

We offer cross-product solutions tailored to our client’s needs; our Credit Risk team will provide bespoke exposure limits, margin and leverage requirements.

▪ Post-trade settlement

Access two-way streaming pricing and execute trades without the need to pre-fund your account, and benefit from improved capital efficiency and reduced counterparty risk. Our next-gen settlement infrastructure allows for swift crypto and fiat settlements across market conditions. B2C2’s global operations team is available 24/7/365 to assist with any queries.

▪ Connectivity solutions

Login to our single dealer platform via our GUI or connect to us via API over WebSocket/REST and FIX. We also provide RFQ access via our GUI and API and are fully integrated with numerous third-party execution platforms.

▪ Institutional expertise

Our team of seasoned professionals is drawn from leading investment banks, FinTechs, and algorithmic trading funds.
