construction company

Introducing TB Projects

A specialist in new builds, complex structural remodelling, refurbishments, and large extensions, predominantly within the high end residential sector.

Based in Beaconsfield, we operate throughout Buckinghamshire, the surrounding home counties and London.

“ As a former construction manager with over fifteen years of experience working for some of London's premier main contractors, I have built up an impressive reputation managing large-scale, high-end residential and hotel developments.

TB Projects was established to deliver the finest quality and most exclusive bespoke homes, providing you a highly personalised service and build partner. ”

If you have a project in mind, Our Managing Director Terry would personally like to speak to you about it.
