Privacy & Cookie Policy

We will not collect any personal information during your visit at our website without your explicit consent.
The only area of the website where you will have to input your data are the forms used to request a catalogue, a price offer, or the form to receive to our news brief.
Your data will be store in our database and will not be sold or shared with third parties, you can ask for deletion of your data any time you wish

Cookies are temporary text files that your computer, tablet or smartphone saves when you visit our website. Thanks to the information in these cookies, we can, for example, remember your language preference. We also use cookies to understand how you use our website and which services you find interesting. Cookies are not all baked from the same dough. We use three variants: functional, analytical and marketing cookies.

Functional cookies

To make our website work optimally, we use functional cookies. With this you save your website preferences, you automatically log into our website and all your products are kept in the shopping cart for a later time.

Name cookie	Placed by	Target
_cfduid	Cloudflare	This cookie is used by the Cloudflare content network to identify individual clients behind a shared IP address and to set up security based on these clients. There is no relation to a user ID and no personal data is stored.
ci_session	Yes-CMS (CMS-platform van deze website)	Functional cookies related to the user session, necessary for the correct functioning of the website. By generating a random and encrypted code, the site can identify visitors (anonymously). This cookie allows communication between web server and browser and stores information from your session temporarily. For example, it ensures that you do not have to fill out a form completely when you reload the page or make a mistake.
user_id	Yes-CMS	A cookie that connects to the central cms platform and ensures that the correct website is displayed.
